

Central Kentucky Millwrights and Riggers

Millwright Work

Central Kentucky Millwrights is experienced with over 20yrs experience and highly skilled millwrights are some of the best in the industrial construction business today. That expertise has been applied in the automotive industry, food processing, chemical, plastics, polymers and printing industries. Central Kentucky has done all types of millwright work—fabricating for specific needs to precision alignment of a conveyor system to a complete plant and factory relocation and rearrangements and equipment turnkey installations or relocation projects.

Machinery Moving & Rigging

Central Kentucky can move your equipment safely and properly, and place it precisely; we have the right tool for the job. We have access to all types of moving and rigging equipment. Our staff has over 20yrs experience in moving and setting equipment.

Fabrication & Painting

Central Kentucky has its own fabrication shop located 10 miles outside of Georgetown. We have the capabilities of building and designing and painting all your fabrication needs. We are capable of all types of welding from mild steel to aluminum to stainless steel. We can build one off project specific to your needs.

Maintenance:

Central Kentucky does General maintenance work that includes servicing of Press lines, Hydraulics, Conveyors, air systems and many others.